“MY KIND OF COUNTRY”

The designer, antiques store owner, and author—her new book, The Decorated Home, is out now—talks color, collectibles, and more.

You're known for your unapologetic use of color. What are the color rules you live by?

I try to limit myself to one really bold statement per room—like a fuchsia wallcovering or a turquoise sofa. When in doubt, keep it simple.

Do you have a tried-and-true paint shade?

Actually, I rarely use the same color twice! We're always custom-mixing paints to match wallpaper or fabrics—or to go with the location of a house. I'm working on a ranch in Texas now, and the home's palette truly reflects the earthy tones outside. It's such a beautiful setting that we wanted the design to fade into the hills.

Speaking of outdoor settings, what are your backyard must-haves?

Every yard should have a comfortable place to sit and chat over drinks. Garden Bench (1), $249; grandinroad.com

What's an impulse buy you just can't resist?

I love the tiny gadgets up at the register at hardware stores, like keychain screwdrivers. Multi-tool Keychain (2), $4; homedepot.com

Can't miss collectible?

I love lettuceware! I've been building my collection for years. Cup and Saucer (3), $120 for set of 2; toryburch.com

Besides your shop, Meg Braff Designs, what's your favorite spot for antiques?

My town, Locust Valley, New York, has wonderful shops such as The Finer Things and Early & Co. I also love buying at auctions because everything has an interesting provenance.

Most recent antiquing score?

One fabulous find was a set of chinoiserie wallpapers that I had remounted. They were sitting in an old box at a sleepy little auction house.

You do seem to love wallpaper.

What's your latest pick?

Oriental Pastorale from our collection; it's a bit exotic and combines chinoiserie, bright color, and treillage. Patterned Wallpaper (4), $144 per roll; megbraffdesigns.com

It's Saturday. How are you whiling away the afternoon?

Gardening and planting in my yard. Seed Collection (5), $25; floretflowers.com and Floral Gloves, $38; shopterrain.com
